

Home: Children's Interactive Workshops with Barking Spider Visual Theatre

As part of the Home exhibition 3 March–2 April, children and their families are invited to join the Barking Spider Visual Theatre in engaging interactive workshops - explore the concept of home, family life, identity and domestic spaces and create a domestic environment inside a shoebox using diverse materials and techniques.

Workshop times, age group and price:

Saturday 4 March, 2.30pm–4.30pm

Saturday 11 March, 2.30pm–4.30pm

Age group: four to 11

Tickets: $5 per child

Bookings via www.gleneira.vic.gov.au/gallery

Bookings are essential for workshops. Children must be accompanied by adults. Limited places are available per workshop. Maximum of two tickets per family. Mobile numbers will be used to send a reminder text message for events you have booked.

Venue:

Party in the Park – Princes Park

Attend a day of family fun at Princes Park. Main stage entertainment will be hosted by Alex Papps and will include live performances by Trolls, Dora the Explorer and Captain Trash as well as community performances. Showcase your special talent and enter Glen Eira Idol. There will also be roving performances by Stilt Scarecrows and Jockey's on Horseback. Free rides, activities, community information and demonstrations for the whole family.

The theme of the event is Sustainability. Children's activities, performances and demonstrations will be based around the importance of being sustainable. Visit Council's sustainability marquee, which will showcase thriving raised garden beds full of vegetables and herbs that you can grow at home. Children will also have the chance to make their own seed bomb or nature crown and sit in the front seat of one of Council's recycling trucks. An ocean-themed bottle cap mural will be on display, created by 21 local schools and early learning centres from recycled plastics.

Date: Sunday, 19 February 10am–4pm

Location: Princes Park, Hawthorn Road, Caulfield South
